

RINGING IN THE YEAR OF THE TIGER AT NORTHWESTERN

February 16, 2010

Northwestern China Care Club celebrated Chinese New Year with two very special events, "Celebrasia", which is hosted annually by Northwestern's Chinese Student Association, and a club-run event that featured traditional lantern-making, red envelopes and origami for children in the club's playgroup and mentorship program.

Molly Chen, president of Northwestern China Care Club, says the event "was a great chance for mentors and mentees to ring in the New Year and bond as a group!"

More stories >

